

Global Food Solutions Expands into Texas, New Mexico, and Oklahoma with McLean Marketing

Edgewood, NY, August 21, 2024 – Global Food Solutions, along with its Right Start Foods and Power Up Foods brands, is excited to announce a strategic partnership with McLean Marketing as our new food service broker in Texas, New Mexico, and Oklahoma.

This partnership represents a significant step in our commitment to providing nutritious and delicious food options to schools and other institutions. With McLean Marketing's expertise and local market knowledge, we aim to enhance our reach and better serve the communities in these regions.

"We are thrilled to launch our programs with great customers like Dallas Public Schools and Northside Independent School District (ISD), among many others," said Michael Levine, CEO of Global Food Solutions and Right Start Foods Brand. "McLean Marketing's reputation and experience make them the perfect partner to help us achieve our mission of delivering exceptional value and quality."

This expansion is part of our broader strategy to meet the growing demand for high-quality, nutritious food products in the education sector. Our collaboration with McLean Marketing will enable us to introduce our innovative offerings to a wider audience, ensuring that more students benefit from our healthy and tasty food solutions.
